4. pursuing the defense of potential claims – the legal basis is the legitimate interest (Article 6(1)(f) GDPR).

Data Processing Period

1. User personal data will be processed only for the period necessary to achieve the purpose for which they were collected, especially for the time during which the person whose data is concerned remains a registered User of the Platform.
2. Data will not be stored for longer than 6 years from the moment of account deletion.

Data Recipients

1. User personal data may be transferred to the Administrator's technological partners and other entities providing legal and accounting services to the Administrator.
2. User personal data will generally not be transferred outside the European Economic Area.

User Rights

1. At any time, the User has the right to:
  - withdraw consent to processing,
  - request access to their personal data,
  - request correction of their personal data,
  - request erasure or restriction of processing of their personal data,
  - object to the processing of data.
2. Each User also has the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office if they believe that the processing violates the GDPR.
3. In case of any doubts about the way their rights are implemented or any difficulties associated with this, the User may contact the Administrator at the e-mail address support@gg3.xyz.

Additional Information

1. Providing data is voluntary, but in case of non-provision, registration and maintenance of the User's account, and consequently the use of the functionalities offered through the Platform, will not be possible.
2. In the process of processing personal data, automated decision-making, including profiling based on information about the completion of a specific task and the number of points collected, occurs.
3. Despite the location of the headquarters outside the European Economic Area, the Administrator declares that all User rights will be exercised in accordance with the GDPR within the European Union. If the need arises to transfer this data for undefined purposes, e.g., in the case of pursuing or defending claims, the User will be informed by the Administrator.

Cookie Files

1. The Platform uses its own cookie files (first-party cookies) and third-party cookies.
2. The Platform uses the following cookie files:
  - necessary – files essential for the proper functioning of the Platform (e.g., enabling basic functionalities such as site navigation or tracking User movements during specific tasks) and therefore cannot be disabled – processed based on the legitimate interest of the Administrator (Article 6(1)(f) GDPR),

- preferential – files that remember website settings, including content layout and language, significantly facilitating the User's use of the website – processed based on the User's consent (Article 6(1)(a) GDPR),
- statistical – allow the website operator to understand how Users use its various elements; creating anonymous statistics and analyzing website visits and viewership based on information collected in such cookie files – processed based on the User's consent (Article 6(1)(a) GDPR).

Cookie Storage Period

The lifespan of cookie files depends on their type and may be as follows:

1. necessary files – session files (deleted after closing the web browser window used by the User) and permanent files;
2. preferential files – stored for 1 year from the moment of saving;
3. statistical files – session files (deleted after closing the web browser window used by the User) and files stored from 1 day to a maximum of 2 years.

Cookie Settings and Management

1. Standardly used web browsers accept cookie file storage by default, while simultaneously providing the option to manage cookie storage settings.
2. Users can, through their web browser settings, limit or completely disable the ability to save cookie files. Detailed information is available in the help section of the web browser:
